Olive Cedar Studio
~ Chantel Stovell

Growing up in a semi-rural environment, and having had a background in outdoor pursuits such as hiking, camping and canoeing, I've always found the natural world to be a source of wonder and inspiration.

Olive Cedar Studio delivers crisp, clean designs in silver jewellery that will stand the test of time. Incorporating images from the natural world as a foundation and inspiration, the finished products are delicate and refined, while remaining sturdy and not overly fussy. The aim is to create work that can function in both a casual and formal context, remaining versatile and comfortable.
